PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to all my friends, this will be the last newsletter before we meet at Arlington for our annual reunion. For those who may have misplaced their March newsletter, I will repeat the pertinent information regarding the plans for the reunion.

The reunion dates are July 21 – 28, 2013. Our host hotel will be The Doubletree Crystal City located at 300 Army Navy Drive, Arlington, VA. Unfortunately, the room block has been filled at the Doubletree, but we have negotiated a contract with a nearby hotel for a limited number of overflow rooms at the same price ($109.00 plus tax). Parking will also be at the discounted rate of $10.00 per day.

For those who plan to attend but have not registered yet, we suggest you call the Doubletree first at (703) 416-4100 (refer to group code KWE) and check for vacancies due to cancellations. If there are no vacancies at the Doubletree, contact the overflow hotel: The Crowne Plaza Hotel located at 1480 Crystal Drive Arlington, VA; phone (direct) 703-416-1600 and refer to Group Code KOR for the event dates (July 23- 28, 2013). The cutoff date is July 20th, 2013. We emphasize that there are only a limited number of rooms available at the $109.00 rate. If you plan to attend the reunion and have not already registered, we suggest you do so right away; otherwise, you may be quoted a much higher rate.

The Activity Registration form in the March newsletter listed our banquet on Saturday night. This was in error. The banquet will be on Friday night and the dance on Saturday night.

There is a remote possibility that the DOD will pay for transportation to the Saturday 60th Anniversary Commemoration Ceremony tour. We were not aware of this when our registration form was sent out. If this happens, those who have paid the $28.00 bus charge will be refunded.

The 60th Anniversary Gala tentatively scheduled for Saturday night has not been finalized as of this date. This is a non-association function but we will attempt to have the information available at the hotel for those who may wish to participate.

Our committee has been working diligently to make this reunion a memorable event by arranging some special entertainment and also selecting a special memento to be presented to each EX-POW's in attendance at the banquet. The ladies will also receive a token of appreciation for their efforts in "rescuing" the guys. Be sure to attend the banquet and receive this unique gift.

Don't forget the group photo to be taken on Thursday, July 25th. The time and location will be posted on the bulletin board. Each P.O.W. in the group photo will receive a free copy of the photo on Friday at the banquet. The photographer will be accepting orders for additional copies of the group photo.

The surviving spouse brunch is expected to be an enjoyable function this year with some added activity. If you are a surviving spouse and have not already made plans to attend, contact Peggy Sullivan at (note: the area code shown in the March Newsletter is incorrect.)

When we view the taps section of each newsletter we are saddened by the passing of so many of our buddies, and this year is no exception as we mourn the passing of our good friend and two-time Association President, Lloyd Pate. Lloyd was truly a loyal American, a good soldier and a true friend. He will be sadly missed by those of us fortunate to have known him personally for so many years. I was in Florida and unable to attend the memorial service but my thoughts were, and still are, with his family. Carl Weatherman, Phyllis Badke and others attended the memorial service.

I was asked to do the eulogy of another good friend, Joe Ford, who passed away March 28th, 2013. Melvin Taylor and Emmett Harrison also attended the memorial service. Joe was presented with the Purple Heart on January 19th before his passing.

Dewey Brewer, one of the 12 members who attended the first reunion in 1976, passed away January 14, 2013. I was not made aware of his passing until later, otherwise I would have been there. Now there are only three of the charter members left.

An effort is being made to encourage the U.S. Postal Service to issue a forever postage stamp honoring the POW/MIA Flag. Postage stamps have been issued honoring movie stars, politicians and even animals, but nothing honoring those still waiting to come home. We encourage you to write to the following and express your views. Write to: Pat Donahue 471 L'Enfant Plaza S.W. Washington, D.C. 2026-0004 c/c Postmaster General, U.S. Postal Service.

Our good friend Lee Merworth who passed away on February 12, 2013 was featured on the Nancy Grace TV show recently as an "American Hero"; a most deserving tribute to our buddy.

Gerald Cavagnaro, Joe Ramirez and his son (Brigadier General Ramirez), Paul Roach, Ray (Mike) Dowe, Robert (Bob) Wood, Robert L. (Bob) McGreevy, Herbert A. Miller, William J.(Bill) Richardson and Virginia Mayo, widow of Walt Mayo (Ex-POW), and others attended the ceremony at D.C. recently in which Father Kapaun was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor. Thank you guys for making it known that we care.

Korean War EX-POW Willie Freeman was the guest speaker at Andersonville Georgia National Historic Site on April 6, 2013. Freeman was captured February 12, 1951 during the Hoengsong Massacre battle and held captive until August 19, 1953. "Atta boy, Willie".

Ed Fenton, assisted by family members, will post the wreath at the tomb of the Korean War unknown at Arlington this Memorial Day. Thank you, Ed, for your dedication.

Edmond Reel will appear and be interviewed on PBS on Sunday May 26, 2013. We'll be watching Ed.

If anyone knows where Johnnie Johnson's original list is located, the Andersonville National Historic Site is interested in obtaining it for permanent display there. The contact person at Andersonville is beers@nps.gov or EricLeonard@nps.gov.

The KBS (Korean National Broadcasting Network) is seeking information from former POW's to be included in a documentary when finished will be shown to the Korean people to remind them of the sacrifices endured by American Soldiers in defense of their freedom. They will be sending a film crew to America to document the interviews. They are especially looking for Ex-POW's captured during the early stages of the war and captured by the North Koreans. If anyone is interested in taking part in an interview contact Mya Kim at yuhaa15@gmail.com for further details.

In viewing the registration roster I am happy to report that our good friend and Medal of Honor recipient, Hiroshi "Hershey" Miyamura will be with us this year. It is indeed an honor to have Hershey back with us after such a long time. I am excited and look forward to visiting with him again.

We normally do not promote books (except those written by our own Arden Rowley) but there is a recent publication that I feel deserves mentioning. The title is "Cold Days in Hell"- American POWs in Korea. This book was written by William Clark Latham Jr. who has attended our reunion a number of times and interviewed some of our members, who are also mentioned in the book. If you want to see the facts in print, this is the book to read. You may order a copy at: 1-800-826-8911 or Email: holli.estrige@tamu.edu. The cost is $32.00.

I have been asked to publicize the State of Alabama POW/MIA Recognition Day to be held on September 21st at the Alabama State Capital in Montgomery. The Governor of Alabama will attend and take part in this ceremony. Those of you residing in Alabama and the surrounding states that can't attend the Andersonville, Georgia event on that date should support and plan to attend this ceremony. The contact person is Don Westwood at 11963 Balsam Ct. Spanish Fort, AL. 36527, email: danson50@gmail.com.

Enough said for now. Hope to see you at Arlington in July. Bill Norwood, President

Chaplain's Corner:

Hello to everyone! I hope that all of you will be able to attend the reunion this July. It will be good to see all of you and let us remember the ones among us that are unable to make the trip and pray for them daily. God has really been good to let us meet for this many years. We should give Him the praise for that. If we have ever needed prayer to be answered it is now for our country and our people, but we know that God is still in control.

In Ezra 8:18, it says "Be encouraged, the good Hand of God is upon us." We are grateful to Thee, Eternal God, whose almighty hand controls the years, that Thou doest guide Thy children along the difficult and lengthening paths of life. Grant us the joy and satisfaction, as we look back over the years from time to time, of seeing clearly that the good Hand of God has ever been upon us. Thus strengthened and encouraged, may we then look forward with confidence and cheerfully take up again the tasks that are ours. In Jesus name, Amen. Drive safely, Norman Hale

DPMO Report:

On 11 April 2013, a long journey came to an end. Capt/Chaplain/Father Emil J. Kapaun [Hq/8 Cavalry, POW 2 November 1950, death reported on 23 May 1951] posthumously received his Medal of Honor from President Barack Obama. Nine surviving POWs who had known him were there, alphabetically: Gerald "Bob" Cavagnaro, Richard A. Caverly, Ray Michael Dowe, Jr. Robert L. McGreevy, Herbert A. Miller, Joe E. Ramirez, William J. Richardson, Jr., Paul A. Roach, Jr., and Robert Stephen Wood. Father Kapaun's nephew, Mr. Ray Kapaun of Pilsen, Kansas, received the award on his behalf, and several other family members were present, as well.

Father Kapaun was among the 8th Cavalrymen captured at Unsan when their positions were overrun by massive Chinese forces. He was taken at the 3rd Battalion Command Post, where he had stayed behind to help care for the wounded, actually on 5 November. Marching northward, he did all that he could for the men around him, first at the holding point of Sambakkol and then at Camp 5 at Old Pyoktong on the south bank of the Yalu River. In an act of continuing sacrifice, he knowingly exhausted himself, and finally passed on 23 May 1951. We know that he died at the Pagoda Sick House, and that he was buried behind it, not across the back water arm that extended behind Camp 5 on its north side.

His remains have never been identified, but do we have them now? Some bodies were returned after war's end during Operation Glory, including about 560 remains from Camp 5. All but 75 men from this group were identified at Kokura, Japan, in 1954-56, and returned to their families. The 75 were then among the Unknowns buried at National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific (NMCP) in Honolulu, Hawaii, in May 1956. In recent years, we have done exhumations from NMCP, and among others, we have identified six men from Camp 5. Beyond all of that, the North Koreans returned an additional 208 containers with U.S. remains during 1990-94, and 21 of these were from Camp 5. Five additional Camp 5 identifications have come from this group.

Work continues. The 208 containers from 1990-94 are in a respectful, working storage above ground, so the scientists at Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command (JPAC) can examine them freely. We will not request an exhumation from NMCP unless there is good, probable cause, meaning well done preparations for a likely identification. The rules are different, we're making progress with both groups.

It's not just a case of Father Kapaun's remains. As we fine-tune good methods, other identifications will surely follow. Very often, an identification "here" will suggest a name from "there." As many of you already know, Father Kapaun is also under consideration for beatification and sainthood in the Roman Catholic Church. This question is outside our venue, but there's no harm in simply wishing a good man, an exceptional man, well. He and his companions, either returned from Camp 5 or still resting at Camp 5, are a very special responsibility. Efforts at resolution continue...

The Sambakkol [125 30 45 E, 40 34 33 N] and Camp 5 [125 26 00 E, 40 37 30 N] sites are still intact, and you can look them up. Go to Google Maps, satellite mode, punch in the numbers, and zoom in! At Sambakkol, huts extend up and down the valley—not a single point. At Camp 5, the old back water arm is now partially dry land above the lowered river level.

Best to all!

Operations Little Switch and Big Switch:
The Repatriation of Korean War Prisoners of War and the Aftermath

By Arden A. Rowley, Maj. USA (Ret)

Arden A. Rowley became a prisoner of war while serving with the 2nd Engineer Combat Battalion, 2nd Infantry Division on 1 December 1950. During the next 33 months he was interned in five POW camps in North Korea, experiencing and witnessing, first-hand, the harsh conditions and treatment meted out by the North Korean and Communist captors. He was repatriated in Operation Big Switch on 18 August 1953.

There are many scattered accounts of the repatriation of Korean War prisoners of war in Operations Little Switch and Big Switch (April and August-September 1953). This account of those two operations is a compilation of many writings, articles, statements and photographs giving a complete and cohesive account of Korean War POW repatriation by which thousands of POWs of both sides gained their freedom. Operations Little Switch and Big Switch: The Repatriation of Korean War Prisoners of War and the Aftermath is the most complete account of these operations under one cover. The publication of this book coincides with the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of these events. Maj. Rowley is the Historian of the Korean War Ex-POW Association.

This publication is 250 pages and is an 8 1/2" X 11" hardbound edition with smythe-sewn binding and matte, acid-free pages for superior photo reproduction.

Features:

- Truce Talks and the Prisoner of War Question
- Operation Little Switch (Release of sick and wounded POWs)
