President's Message

Hello friends,

The reunion at DC was a great success with 71 former POW's in attendance, along with family members and friends for a total of 295. The 60th anniversary celebration at the Memorial Mall was well attended and was most fitting memorializing the occasion. The tours were great, especially the show at the Marine Barracks. Now we know the Marines can do something right (only kidding of course).

Our committee did a fantastic job in providing entertainment and gifts for all those in attendance. We greatly appreciate all the planning and hard work that went into this undertaking, especially getting the guys together for the group picture. What a task, but Cindy made it happen. The surviving spouse breakfast was a great success again this year. There were 39 in attendance, including guests. The hospitality bar was handled most efficiently by Linda and Greg Brusseau, along with others who pitched in to help. Thanks to all those who helped with this worthwhile cause.

We greatly appreciate the efforts of Betty Sittler in conducting a most fitting memorial service again this year. Betty puts her heart into planning and conducting this service each year and it is evident in the results. Our reunion would not be complete without the Sunday Worship Service conducted by Chaplain Norman Hale. Norman has served as Chaplain since near the very beginning and I believe he has only missed one reunion and that was due to personal reasons. Some of us often miss the service due to travel arrangements, but our thoughts are always there.

Our own "hustler," Carlos Lugo, made the 50/50 lots of fun again this year. Carlos, I still say that you are in the wrong business. You should be in Vegas. As always, the raffle activity was also both fun and profitable. Peggy Sullivan, JoAnn Siebert and others dedicate their time to this activity each year and miss out on lots of fun. Next year we will not plan a raffle activity and give these girls a break. "Mr. Lucky", Richard Donatelli, won the two free room nights at the Doubletree and also the “Charles Montano Big Three” money jar. Eugene Johnson won the 50/50 prize and a first timer won the other cash prize. Congratulations to the winners and a big “thank you” to all those who participated.

I was elected to serve as Association President again next year. Thanks for your confidence and I promise to serve to the best of my ability. Jack Chapman was elected as 1st Vice President and Janet Schupbach was elected to serve as 2nd Vice President. Two new directors were elected this year – Willie Freeman and Betty Sitler. Cindy Chapman was also re-elected. If you have suggestions, ideas or even complaints contact me or one of the five directors listed on the cover of the newsletter.

Louisville, Kentucky was selected as the reunion site for 2014. The dates are July 27 – August 3, 2014. Complete details will be in future newsletters after the contract has been finalized and signed.

On a sad note, in 2012 a proposal to determine the process for dissolving our Corporation (The Korean War EX-POW Association) was on the agenda, but since our Senior Vice President and legal advisor, Gordon Madson, was not present, the proposal was tabled. This year an attorney with expertise in Iowa Corporate Law, our state of incorporation, was retained to determine the steps necessary to accomplish this goal. The attorney provided us this information in the form of a resolution. The Board of Directors and the membership approved the resolution at the membership meeting this year. In summary, in 2015 “The Korean War EX-POW Association” will be dissolved as a Corporation and will no longer be subjected to Iowa Corporate Law or Internal Revenue Service requirements. A motion was adopted at the general membership meeting that the reunion in 2014 at Louisville, KY, will be the last reunion held under the registered name, “The Korean War EX-POW Association”.

There are various reasons for taking this action. The loss of membership due to age and deaths, inability to travel, the task of maintaining the membership roster, formulating, producing and distributing the newsletter, lack of those willing to serve in leadership positions and the tedious and difficult task of preparing and submitting required legal documents associated with the Corporation. Dissolving the Corporation does not mean that a reunion arranged under a different title can not be planned, if there is an interest and there are those who are willing to take on this task. If there is anyone who would like to pursue this matter I suggest they form a committee and formulate a plan to be presented at the reunion in Louisville. It has been a good ride for 39 years but for the reasons stated above, along with many others, the Corporation known as The Korean War EX-POW Association will come to a close in 2015.

Enough said, Bill Norwood, President.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Hello again to all our ex-POW'S and families!! It was good to see you in D. C. We hope everyone had a safe trip home as we did. We would like to thank all that has backed us up for 38 years in the Sunday Morning Service. It has been a privilege for me to be your Chaplain. There is no way I could have done it without you. I am really concerned about our country. We really need to pray for America. This is my prayer: Almighty God, Prince of Peace, teach us that it is not Thy will that men or nations should fight, kill, and destroy. May Thy will become the Will of Thy professed followers, and may all who are called by Thy name live at peace with God, with themselves and with their fellowmen. We pray that the advocates of peace shall hold increasing sway over the people of the world. Hasten the time when wars shall cease unto the ends of the earth. We humbly pray in Jesus' name, Amen May God Bless America

Chaplain, Norman Hale

FATHER KAPAUN

So much has been written about Father Kapaun. I'd like to add a few thoughts of my own. When he arrived with the 8th Cavalry in July 1950, North Korean forces were still advancing and the Naktong Perimeter was yet to be formed. He was up with his men, and as friendly lines continued to fall back, he was usually almost as close to the enemy. He didn't speak of it, but one concern was surely capture. It was not a question of himself, but of the men with him.

He knew what had happened with Capt Herman G. Felhoelter, a few weeks before. Also a Catholic Chaplain, he chose to stay behind with about 30 wounded men of 24th Division just north of Taejon. He ordered every man who could still walk to move out. Father Felhoelter did what he could, physically and spiritually, until they were overtaken and killed in what later became known as Korean War Crimes Case #10.

A few months later, Father Kapaun found himself in a very similar situation at Unsan, North Korea, as the 3rd Battalion Command Post, 8th Cavalry, was overrun by Chinese forces. But there were two critical differences. He and other officers could arrange an orderly surrender, and the Chinese troops involved were under disciplined control. His final act there, to pick up a wounded man and carry him to safety, set the tone for the others as well. Some would die, here and there, but there would be no massacre.

En route north to Sambakkol and Camp 5, Father Kapaun met the captured 19th Infantry Chaplain, Capt Kenneth C. Hyslop, and a Northern Baptist. While trying to minister to his men, Pastor Hyslop had been kicked and clubbed by guards. The internal injuries were mortal and he died a few days later at Sambakkol. But the two Chaplains had a chance to talk, and Father Kapaun realized that his service from this point would have to be more careful. He still went out at night. He found food and heated water. He shared all that he could, and pressed other to do the same. But he would be watchful, even while trusting God. To die today would help no one tomorrow.

His service would have to be urgent but measured, until it consumed the last bit of his energy and livelihood at Camp 5. When Father Kapaun finally passed at the Old Pagoda death house, he knew that he had done all that he could, all that God would allow. He had learned from Father Felhoelter and Pastor Hyslop, and then joined them on his final day.

Best to all! A Friend

SEEKING INFORMATION:

JACK NOBLE: Sonnie Mathes is seeking information on her father, Jack D. Noble. Jack was captured on February 3rd, 1951. He is listed as being in Camp One and was returned during Big Switch on August 21, 1953. If you knew his father, please email .

WILLIAM CAMDEN JR.: Seeking information on, William A. Camden, Jr. William served with First Cavalry Div. Company G, 8th Cavalry Regiment, was captured Nov. 3, 1950, held at Camp 3, and

ROBERT WESTERN: Shorty Estabrook is searching for information like date of death on Robert D. Western who was with the Tiger Survivors. He was a very close friend of mine and lived in Pomona California. He died a long time ago and I do not have date of death. If you have any information please email Shorty at

SGT Byron "Spud" Murphy: Byron Murphy sent the following information: My father is a Korean War POW and is now 87 years old. He often talks of his military career and especially his time in Korea. He was a young Vickers Machine Gun Sergeant with the Gloucestershire Regiment and amongst other things will be remembered for being placed in solitary confinement for refusing to build a wall.

Recently he found and gave me a note book that was issued to him by the Chinese for remembrance purposes. Needless to say all it contains are lyrics to a few popular songs of the day but more importantly some names and addresses. He is one of the very few remaining POWs from his regiment and probably the UK contingent as a whole. I would like to at least let him know if a few of the US friends he made during that time are alive and if possible get some contact between them.

Based on the information on your website it looks like he was in camp 4. Any assistance you can give me would be appreciated.

The names in the book are:

Dewey E Brittain, Sipriano M Blass, Charles J Hroback, Eugene F Domenoski, Jesse L James, Herman Castle, Douglas A Tanner, Mack E Winstead, W Royster, Cecil E Stamper, James F Matlock

Byron can be contacted by email:

DECEASED:

BAFS, Carl, J. died on August 16, 2013. Bafs served with Med Company, 7 Cav. 1st Cal. Div., was captured on December 2, 1950 and returned during Big Switch, on August 17, 1953.

It was 40 degrees below zero on Nov. 29, 1950 and the American Soldiers were surrounded by Chinese. The location was 40 miles northwest of Pyongyang. It was the battle of Sonchonni and Bafs was captured. Thirty one prisoners began the 300 mile march to Anju, but 19 froze to death or died from diarrhea; Sgt. Bafs was one who made it. From Anju to Chang Song (Camp 1 and 3) he remained until August 1953.

BAKER, William E. passed away June 5, 2013 as reported by his wife. He served with Svc. Btry. 38th FA BN, 2Div. He was captured on Nov 30, 1950 and returned during Big Switch on August 28, 1953. Camps 5 & 3.

CHANCE 'Inky '(Adelbert) W. was promoted to Glory on August 27, 2013 in Newfield, New Jersey due to late stages of Parkinson's disease. He was stationed in Fukuoka, Japan on Occupation Duty with A Battery, 63rd Field Artillery of the 24th Infantry Division, and deployed with that unit to Korea in early July 1950. He was a PFC and a scout and promoted to Corporal after capture. Inky was captured on July 14, 1950 during the Kum River engagement. He was released on August 23, 1950. Lois, the love of his life, preceded him to heaven.

I remember Inky and one day he could not stand against the force of the wind. He said repeatedly, "I am not going to die in this ungodly place". I never saw anyone fight for life like Inky Chance did. Shorty Estabrook, B/19/24 Prisoner of War with Inky

MORELAND, Virginia Ruth (Coffman), , on July 30, 2013. She is survived by her children, five great-grandchildren and a brother. She was preceded in death by her husband, Joe in 2010.

PETERSON, John, son of Donald Peterson. John was the elder of two boys. John and David were musicians and performed for us, with their band, on two occasions: Illinois and Colorado. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Peterson Family in this time of sorrow.

WHITCOMB, Walter R, . He served with K. Co. 29 RCT. 24th Div. He was captured on July 27, 1950 and returned on October 23, 1950.

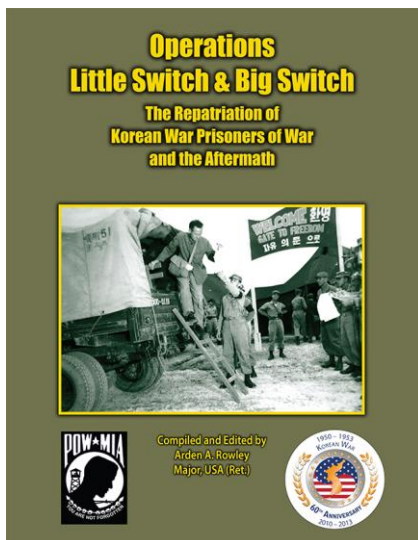

Operations Little Switch and Big Switch: The Repatriation of Korean War Prisoners of War and the Aftermath

By Arden A. Rowley, Maj. USA (Ret)

Arden A. Rowley became a prisoner of war while serving with the 2nd Engineer Combat Battalion, 2nd Infantry Division on 1 December 1950. During the next 33 months he was interned in five POW camps in North Korea, experiencing and witnessing, first-hand, the harsh conditions and treatment meted out by the North Korean and Communist captors. He was repatriated in Operation Big Switch on 18 August 1953.

There are many scattered accounts of the repatriation of Korean War prisoners of war in Operations Little Switch and Big Switch (April and August-September 1953). This account of those two operations is a compilation of many writings, articles, statements and photographs giving a complete and cohesive account of Korean War POW repatriation by which thousands of POWs of both sides gained their freedom. Operations Little Switch and Big Switch: The Repatriation of Korean War Prisoners of War and the Aftermath is the most complete account of these operations under one cover. The publication of this book coincides with the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of these events. Maj. Rowley is the Historian of the Korean War Ex-POW Association.

This publication is 250 pages and is an 8 ½" X 11" hardbound edition with Smythe-sewn binding and matte, acid-free pages for superior photo reproduction.

Features:

- Truce Talks and the Prisoner of War Question
- Operation Little Switch (Release of sick and wounded POWs)
- Operation Big Switch (Release of balance of POWs)
- Handling of Prisoners Not Wishing to be Repatriated
- Aftermath of the Prisoner of War Experience
- Korean War "Unknowns" and the "Missing"
- Personal Accounts of Little Switch Repatriates
- Personal Accounts of Big Switch Repatriates
- Freedom Village (United Nations Reception Center)
- Operation Glory (Return of deceased POWs' remains)
- The Turncoats (21 Americans who stayed with the Communists)
