President's Message

Hello again my Friends,

This will be the last contact before the reunion at Louisville. I hope that you have made your reservations with the hotel and also our planner, Armed Forces Reunions. Remember that June 28th is the deadline for making room reservations in our room block at the reduced rate. After that date "you are on your own". You may still get a room but it may be at a higher rate.

I am often asked how we can operate without charging membership dues, large registration fees or other revenue generating fees as all other organizations do. It makes me very proud to say that we operate strictly on the generous donations of our membership and this has been our policy since the very beginning. To show our gratitude for this support, this year the banquet meal will be free to all Korean War EX-POW's and one guest who attend the banquet on Saturday night.

All surviving spouses who attend the banquet will also receive the free meal. The $7.00 planner's fee will be free to all Korean War EX-POW's and one guest who pre-register with Armed Forces Reunions prior to July 1st, 2014. All surviving spouses of Korean War EX-POW's that pre-register will also receive this benefit. All other attendees will be required to pay the $7.00 planners fee.

Also, remember that you must pre-register with Armed forces Reunions prior to July 1, 2014 to be eligible for the $300.00 cash prize drawing. All attendees participating in the association activities, such as tours and banquet, are required to register with Armed Forces Reunions.

It is important that all surviving spouses who plan to attend the Surviving Spouse breakfast must notify Peggy Sullivan three (3) days in advance of the function. Peggy's phone number is XXX-XXX-XXXX. Due to the hotel policy we cannot accommodate walk-in's as in the past. The breakfast is free to all surviving spouses who register with Peggy.

All other guests who wish to attend the function must also register with Peggy and pay for the meal. There will not be a raffle activity this year so please do not bring raffle items.

The hotel shuttle van does not have a handicapped lift but they can put a wheelchair or scooter in the back of the vehicle. If you have a handicapped aid it might be well to mention this when calling for transportation from the airport. Call 502-583-1234 for the hotel airport shuttle.

We are working with the Louisville Korean American community in hopes of receiving some authentic Korean entertainment. Their leaders are also planning to support us in other ways. Since this will be the last Korean War EX-POW Association reunion we have attempted to make it extra special and memorable. We hope to see you there.

If you cannot attend the reunion and would like to have a photo of you added to the Memory Book, please send a photo to Cindy Chapman by August 15, 2014. This photo will not be returned to you. Let Cindy know if you would like to order a Memory Book ($20 made out to "Korean War Ex-POW Association) or order your copy at reunion.

Bill Norwood, President

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Hello to all our friends and families!! Again, we hope all is well with you. When I think back to how many years we have had together, I thank God every day for giving all of us the good times we have had. For some of us, it hasn't always been good. I am thankful that we have been able to join together and enjoy talking about the good things that has happened in the past 39 years. As I write these words, I want all of you to know that I think of you as brothers. It is nearly time for us to meet again, so until that time may God be with you. This prayer is that God will be with us and allow us to have a safe trip.

We are grateful, dear Lord, for the beautiful memories that are ours. Especially do we thank Thee upon every remembrance of those who have touched our lives and made us better. For those who have inspired us, who believed in us, and who helped us when we were too weak, too immature, or too foolish to help ourselves, we praise Thy name. We would make it one of the purposes of our lives to be such friends to others that some one of them may thank God and when He calls us to mind. "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you." Philippians 1:3
For Jesus' sake Amen Your Chaplain, Norman Hale

ARLINGTON MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONIES

Our good friend and longtime supporter, Dallas Mossman, will participate in the Memorial Service at Arlington on Memorial Day this year and he will place our wreath at the tomb of our unknown. That may be one of your 2nd Division buddies in that tomb, Dallas.

2013 ARLINGTON REUNION MEMORY BOOKS

William & Margaret Hamilton and Bob Naukkari ordered memory books and they were returned as they are "temporarily away" from the address given. Please contact Cindy to let her know what address she should forward your memory book to.

SEEKING INFORMATION

PFC Herbert E. Buik Jr.

Maxine Hall is looking for anyone who knew her brother. My brother belonged to the Tiger Group and was listed on Johnnie Johnson's list. He served in C Company, 1st Battalion of 27 Infantry Regiment 25th infantry D. POW on 26 July, 1950 Camp: Manpo. He is buried close to the Chinese border. Apex camps, I also found out he died in Oct. 1950 and was buried on a hill by a fellow POW. Please contact

James "Jim" Alkire

Lee Elliott is looking for any info regarding James "Jim" Alkire. He was a P-51 pilot who disappeared on a mission. He was on the last list of "presumed dead" released after the POW release. Did anyone encounter him in a POW camp? Thanks for any help you can provide.

Paul T. O'Dowd, Jr., Carl L. Aubrey, Cpl Ray P. Cooper, Al Whaley

My father, Al Whaley, was a POW in "Pok's Palace" on the outskirts of Pyongyang. My Dad died there in May of 1951, but 3 men mentioned him in their repatriation briefing.

1LT Paul T. O'Dowd, Jr. 0955768 13th FA Bn, 2nd ID

LTC Carl L. Aubrey 8267A USAF

Cpl Ray P. Cooper ER17263750 B Co 38th Inf Reg, Corpus Christie TX?

Just wondered if any of these men were "still with us"? My Mom told me that after the release of the POWs, one of the men I listed, I believe it was Lt O'Dowd, contacted my Mom and returned his wedding ring.

He reported that when Dad was captured he said he didn't want any "gook" wearing his wedding ring so he kept it in his mouth. He died after about 5 months in captivity and that man then took the ring and kept it in his mouth for what must have been a year or longer. Now I have both his wedding ring and my Mom's on a chain. When Mom was buried at Arlington Cemetery several years ago at Dad's memorial marker, I told the story to the chaplain that conducted the burial service. He was near tears. I still cry every time I tell the story.

Bob Whaley, I served in the Army for 22 years and was wounded in Vietnam 15 years, to the day, after my Dad died in Korea.

Sergeant First Class Deward E. Quarles

Dear ladies and gentlemen, my father Deward E Quarles (see below) was a POW in Korea. Maybe there are photos or records of his stay? I would be happy if they can help me.

Sergeant First Class Deward E. Quarles, 9th Inf. Regt . 2nd Inf Div. (he was born on 29 June 1919), United States Army. He was held as a Prisoner of War after he was captured on 1 December 1950 and was held until his release on 4 September 1953 after the signing of the Armistice. The residence of my father was probably in the POW camp Pyoktong bearing 2, 5 or 7 (editor's note: we have him listed in Camp 5). My name is Eduard Fuerst, Insterburger Street 7, 40789 Monheim, Germany. My e-mail address is

Cpl Glenace H Shaw

I am looking for information on my cousin Cpl Glenace Shaw. He was taken as a POW near the Yalu River. My Aunt was told that he was captured by the Chinese in December of 1950. He was last seen in a motor convoy shortly before his capture. Her first telegram stated he was MIA. On December 19, 1950, my aunt got word that her son's name was mentioned in a propaganda broadcast when he was listed as a POW. She then received a telegram from the Chinese that her son died in a prison camp. He apparently had taken ill, was tied to a tree and died. Date of death was listed as March 6, 1951 however this was never confirmed by the US War Dept.

I am hoping that someone may have known him and has any information about him and what happened to him. Thank you very much; I look forward to hearing from you.

Hugh Shaw, USN Veteran, retired Fire Chief Luke AFB,

Ward Wiles

Verldon Spence wants to know if anyone knows a Ward Wiles who was gut shot by a sniper during the Korean War. Please contact

Billy Dean Lipe

The 94 year old Mother of SGT Billy Dean Lipe is attempting to locate someone who may have known SGT Lipe and could perhaps provide some information about him. SGT Lipe served with Medical Company, 38th Infantry Regiment 2nd Infantry Division. He was reported (MIA) on February 12, 1951 and later died at a POW camp in April, 1951. Respond to Nephew

Tiger Survivor Documentary

I am a documentary film maker in London, England, and am thinking of making a film for the BBC which would include the experiences of Tiger Survivors in 1950. I wondered if your organisation could help by putting me in touch with any survivors who are still alive. I would be happy to call, if you wish to give me a number and suggest a time.

With very best wishes,

Book about Korean War POWs

I attended the reunion in 2012 in Omaha, and I met many of you then. I had just finished graduate school when I attended the Omaha reunion and I wrote my master's thesis about the Korean War and Vietnam War POWs. Many of the Korean War POWs graciously granted me interviews for my paper and that is how I ended up at the reunion.

I started teaching college last year and it has been a busy transition for me, and my plans for writing a book about the Korean War POWs was put on the back burner. However, my schedule has opened up for the summer, as I will be working from home and will have a much more flexible schedule. I plan on finishing the book this summer/fall.

I am attending the reunion this summer in Louisville and I am interested in conducting as many interviews as possible with any of the ex-POWs who are interested.

If you know someone who is interested please you can email me at  or contact Cindy Chapman at  and I will put you in contact with Abby.

SICK CALL

Harold McIntyre hasn't been able to come to reunion for a while due to his disabilities. He was telling me about everyone he remembers and how he loves getting our newsletter. He would really appreciate hearing from anyone who remembers him.

Floyd was a POW for 33 months. He was returned during big switch on August 26, 1953. Camps 3 & 7.

COMBAT PAY

The issue of Combat Pay for U.S. Army men who were Prisoners of War during the Korean War has been defeated. The Army initiated a statute in July, 1952, that established the rules for Combat Pay. The Korean War was raging for two years before this was done and made retroactive to May, 1950, which was before the war began. Many had become Prisoners of War on 5 July, 1950. This statute said that men captured would be paid for only 3 months of Combat Pay in the amount of $45.00 a month.

It was my desire to have a private bill introduced into Congress to address this injustice and thus benefit those Army men who were captured during that war. The cost of such an action is estimated to be nearly $20,000. For Army men to qualify for Combat Pay they would have to be in actual Combat or in a designated Combat Zone, for a period of 6 days a month.

Men captured were in a Combat Zone in North Korea, 24-7 without let up and suffered great torture. Daily beatings were standard fare and for some this ended in death. Many froze to death. The death rate of Americans, who were Prisoners of War in North Korea, was the highest in history. 58% of the Tiger Survivors perished in North Korea.

I am sorry that this failed and I wish I had the magic wand to make it happen.

Shorty Estabrook
POW North Korea July 16, 1950-29 August

A NOTE FROM PHIL O'BRIEN

As most of you already know, I retired from Defense POW/Missing Personnel Office (DPMO) in January after 19 years. I'm now with the love of my life in Oakland CA, and we'll marry this Summer.

It's been a real joy working with all of you, and a pleasure as well to be among the adopted "kids." Beyond helping with the process of identifying Unknown remains from the Korean War, I've sometimes been able to speak about you. It's much more than a question of where and when. People simply don't appreciate what you went through, and even more importantly, what you accomplished.

Those who came home alive were men who not only endured, they helped others to survive. A little support from a friend became a gift of life, especially during that first terrible winter. And those who received later had a chance to give to others, sometimes to friends but just as often to men newly met who became friends. Friends became brothers. And I stand among this band even today. It's a question of values, of who you are and what you represent. It's called being an American. We did not become so by just being there, we gave of ourselves and created a better whole. In this regard, there is no better example than yours.

We've met with North Koreans. I was not at the table, but did pass notes to my boss from the second row. They simply couldn't believe that we honored the survivors and the fallen, and would make any useful effort to bring men home and to get better information. This is who we are. This is what we do. This is why we're here. Formal reunions will be winding down, but I look forward to seeing many of you in years to come, in ones and twos and threes, wherever our paths may cross. God's speed, dear friends! Phil O'B
